

Kenya is a country in the continent of Africa.

Kenya is in East Africa and shares a border with five countries..

Ugali and Nyama Choma are popular Kenyan dishes.

There are many languages spoken in Kenya. Swahili is the most common.

The currency in Kenya is shillings.

Landscape

Mount Kenya

Mount Kenya is the tallest mountain in Kenya.

A lot of Kenya is tropical grassland called savannah.

The Great Rift Valley runs through Kenya.

There are many different landscapes in Kenya.

Kenya has two deserts.

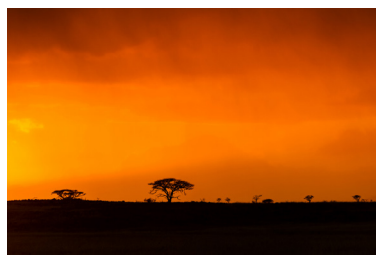

Climate

Kenya's climate varies in different parts of the country.

Kenya sits on the Equator, so it is hot all year round.

Kenya has wet and dry seasons.

Urban Kenya

Life in an urban city in Kenya is both similar and different to the United Kingdom.

Rural Kenya

The Maasai are nomads who live in rural Kenya. Nomads travel from place to place.

Word	Definition
border	The border between two countries is the line where they meet.
capital city	The most important city in a country, usually where the government is based.
coast	The coast is the land that is right next to the sea.
country	A country is a part of the world where a particular nation of people lives.
countryside	The countryside is land that is not in a town.
desert	A desert is dry land where few plants can grow.
Equator	An imaginary line round the earth at an equal distance from the North and South Poles.
humid	Humid air or weather is damp and warm.
mountain	A mountain is a very high hill.
nomads	A member of a group that moves from place to place looking for pasture for their animals.
rural	To do with the countryside.
season	Seasons are periods of similar weather. In places like Europe there are four seasons (spring, summer, autumn and winter), but many tropical areas have two, the wet and the dry season.
tribe	A tribe is a group of people who live together and are ruled by a chief.
urban	To do with a town or city.
valley	The low land between two hills is called a valley.
weather	The weather is what it is like outside, for example whether the sun is shining or it is rainy or windy.