

The Earth

- A globe shows where land and sea is on planet Earth.
- A continent is a very large area of land. There are seven continents on Earth.
- Over 70% of Earth's surface is covered in water.

Equator

- Most places at the Equator are very warm.

Europe

- A small continent.
- Has many famous landmarks.
- It can be warm and sunny in the south, and cooler in the north.

Asia

- The biggest continent (49 countries).
- Has the world's lowest point (the Dead Sea) and highest point (the Himalayas).
- Has lots of habitats and animals.

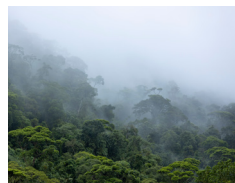

North America

- The third largest continent with 23 countries.
- It is very cold in the north, and very hot in the south.
- Has many natural wonders.

South America

- The fourth largest continent with 12 countries and one territory.
- Has many physical features including rainforests, deserts, mountains, and glaciers.
- Brazil is South America's largest country.

Africa

- Has large animal reserves, which are home to lots of animals.
- The second largest continent with 54 countries.
- Has the world's largest desert (Sahara).
- Has the world's longest river (Nile).

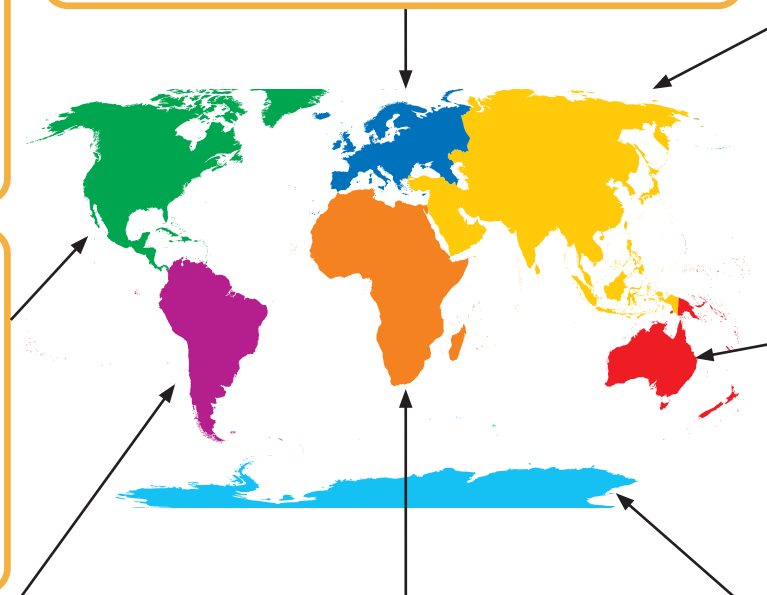

Oceania

- The smallest continent.
- Home to some unusual native animals.
- Made up of Australia, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea, and many smaller islands.

Antarctica

- At the bottom of the planet.
- No humans live in Antarctica but some animals do.
- The coldest, driest, and windiest continent.

Word	Definition
border	The border between two countries is the line where they meet.
camouflage	If something is camouflaged, it is hidden because it looks very like the things around it.
canyons	A canyon is a deep valley with a river at the bottom.
carnivore	An animal that eats meat.
city	A city is a big town.
climate	The climate that a place has is the sort of weather that it has.
continent	A continent is one of the seven very large areas of land in the world.
country	A country is a land with its own people and laws.
desert	A desert is dry land where few plants can grow.
Equator	The equator is an imaginary line round the middle of the earth. Countries near the equator are very hot.
globe	A globe is a ball with the map of the whole world on it.
habitat	The habitat of an animal or plant is the place where it usually lives or grows.

Word	Definition
island	A piece of land with water all round it.
land	The dry part of the Earth where there is no water.
landmark	An object on land that you can easily see from a distance.
ocean	An ocean is a big sea.
outback	The remote inland areas of Australia.
peak	A mountain peak is the top of a mountain.
rainforest	A rainforest is a large forest in a tropical part of the world, where there is a lot of rain.
savannah	A grassy plain in a hot country, with few trees.
sea	The sea is the salty water that covers large parts of the earth.
tourist	A tourist is someone who is visiting a place on holiday.
tropical	A tropical place has a very hot, wet climate.